EVENT ANNOUNCEMENT

2012 Construction Law Seminar

Complimentary seminar for clients and friends of McLennan Ross - by invitation only

Our construction lawyers have been diligent in compiling interesting and significant construction law cases from the past year.

Please join us for our complimentary 2012 Construction Law seminar, where our panel will review recent cases and provide practical advice on how recent changes to the law could influence your work practices and policies in 2012.

This year's seminar will focus on:

- Prime Contractor Liability
- Drug and Alcohol Testing
- Case Law Review (a brief overview of various cases of interest to the construction industry)

Sessions:
